Westchester, IL July 7, 2010 – As Village Manager of Westchester, I am proud to announce the decision to appoint Westchester Sergeant April Padalik to serve as the new Westchester Chief of Police. After the recent retirement of Chief Matt Evans, Lt. Mike O'Hagan served as the interim Chief of Police. April Padalik will now fill this position permanently.

"Sergeant Padalik has the capability of seeing the big picture, while proving to have impressive administrative skills, which are necessary to meet the challenges certain to come for any person serving the community as the Village of Westchester Chief of Police."

Chief of Police April Padalik has over twenty-seven years of law enforcement experience and has been with the Village since 1983. During these years, Chief Padalik has acquired countless certifications while also pursuing advanced degrees in law enforcement. The Village is proud to have such a motivated and committed Officer among the finest here in the Westchester Police Department. Through her excellent communication and interpersonal skills April Padalik has proven her priceless abilities which will be required of her as the new Westchester Chief of Police.
